Arrest Of Robert W. Gorham And George Davis Upsets Community

SPRINGVILLE, Feb. 21 — Monte Gifford, Springville business man and a former president of the Springville chamber of commerce, was named yesterday as the new president of the Springville chamber and, at least temporarily, chairman of the 1957 Springville Rodeo committee.

The moves were made following resignation of George Davis, Springville photographer, as chamber president, and the resignation of Dr. Robert W. Gorham, chiropractor, as head of the rodeo committee.

The resignation of Davis and Gorham followed their arrest Monday night, in a raid led by Deputy Sheriff Bud Lyman, on charges of taking, printing and distributing lewd and lascivious photographs.

The raid that upset the Springville community had been planned for about three months. Working with the sheriff's office was a Porterville teenage girl who had posed for nude photographs that were allegedly being sold by Gorham and Davis.

This 18-year-old girl stated other teenagers had posed for nude photos that, it is understood, were (Continued On Page 8)

Pirates Gun For Second Place In Basetball League Standings With Final Games Over Weekend

PORTERVILLE, Feb. 21 — The Porterville College Pirate basketball team can gain a tie for second place in final CCJCAA standings, and record its most successful season in years, if it can defeat the Fresno Junior College Rams and Taft Junior College Cougars in season-ending games this weekend.

The Pirates currently are in third place with a 6-4 record. Hancock is first with a single loss, Fresno is second with a 7-3 mark, and College of Sequoias is fourth at 6.5. Taft has a 5-5 mark in games to date.

Porterville travels to Fresno Friday night for its important game with Joe Kelly's Rams, a team it defeated, 75-74, in the first round. On Saturday night, the Pirates end their season by hosting Taft, a team that defeated them in the first round.

Coach Bill Stroud's Pirates currently are working on a three-game winning streak, having defeated Coalinga, Reedley, and COS in a row. They turned in one of their top performances in trouncing their traditional rivals from Visalia, 100-82, last Saturday.

Fresno gained national recognition by handing Hancock its first defeat in 42 games last weekend. Coach Kelly, who has produced a state champion and league title holders up to this season, has one of the league's leading players in high scoring center Warren Schmidt. Al Brown, Larry Gambrell, Bobby Palacios and Ben Eichman round out his veteran starting five.

Taft will be paced by husky Bob Hampton, an all-valley prep selection last season.

Porterville's attack, which reached its high point against COS with the 100-point performance, is paced by center Bob Fisher and guard Bob Hill. Fisher has a 21.9 point average for each of the 10 league games played to date. His top effort was a 31-point evening against Reedley. Hill has scored an average of 19.8 points per game. Both are among the league's top scorers. Mountie Bedford, who has seen action in four games, has a 16.7 average. Other 10-game league averages include Roy Springmeyer, 8.6; Jake Rankin, 7.7; Cleon Gibson, 6.7; and Herschel Mosier, 3.6.

Stroud attributes the Pirates' winning spurt to an increase in depth in the squad. The return of Fisher and Gibson to full speed after ankle and knee injuries, and the addition of Bedford at the start of the second semester gives him six players of starting caliber for the first time this season, with Mosier as a capable reserve.

MILK COWS NEED CONSTANT WATER SUPPLY

By Maurice J. Hogan
Farm Advisor

VISALIA, Feb. 21 — If milk cows can ot readily get plenty of water, their production will be appreciably decreased. With the pasture season approaching, dairymen should have water easily available to cows, and drinking tanks should be located where animals do not have to travel great distances to get their fill of water.

Of all the farm animals, dairy cows in milk production, require the greatest amount of water in proportion to their size. The amount of water a cow will drink depends upon her size, her production, the temperature, and the amount of water in the feed.

Average water consumption for dairy cows is from 12½ to 15 gallons per day. However, cows producing 100 pounds of milk per day may drink as much as 300 pounds of water. If hay, silage and concentrates are being fed, milk cows will drink from 2.3 to 4.4 pounds of water per pound of milk produced.

In hot weather cows may drink 80 per cent more water than in moderate weather. The drinking tank should be kept clean and it should be easily available to the cattle at all times.

ceiving a plaque containing a State Senate Concurrent Resolution of Commendation from Senator J. Howard Williams at the regular monthly meeting of the Tulare county chamber of commerce board of directors, Visalia, February 19. Others in the picture are Ben O'Dell, vice president of the county chamber and W. S. Clawson, secretary-manager.

SENATOR J. HOWARD WILLIAMS READY TO "CARRY THE BALL" IF LEGISLATION BECOMES NECESSARY ON STATE WATER

PORTERVILLE, Feb. 18—State Senator J. Howard Williams said today that he is ready to "carry the ball" on any state legislation that may become necessary to keep water flowing to farmers of Tulare county.

With the state supreme court, in the "Ivanhoe case" declaring the 160-acre limitation invalid in federal water contracts, considerable uncertainty has been thrown into the water situation, Senator Williams points out.

"Since the 160-acre limitation clause is written into water contracts between our irrigation districts and the federal government, it is possible that the bureau of reclamation could legally stop delivery of Central Valley Project water if the state court decision is upheld.

"This, of course, would be disastrous to farmers, and to many other persons who depend directly or indirectly on project water. We simply cannot let this happen", Senator Williams said.

It is likely that the Ivanhoe decision will be carried to the United States Supreme court for final judgment, and if the decision of the state court is upheld, water contracts will have to be re-negotiated by irrigation districts, according to Senator Williams.

"If this comes about, legislation at both the state and national level will be necessary to re-establish the relationship between the state and federal government in water project matters.

"If it develops that state legislation is needed, I will immediately introduce it", Senator Williams said.

Legal aspects of the problem are involved and highly technical, Senator Williams points out. "But regardless of this, water must not be shut off in this county, or in the valley", Senator Williams said.

Wm. F. Mann To Mendocino

FINS UR EATHERS

By Phil The Forester

Ocean salmon fishermen had a field day for the weekend opening of the salmon season south of Tomales Point in Marin county, especially the anglers fishing out of Avila and vicinity. The Santa Cruz-Monterey area was good but from all reports not up to the production farther south.

This coming Sunday will provide minus tides in the early afternoon with plenty of shellfish available.

Stanislaus county sources report catfishing along the San Joaquin and lower Tuolumne rivers has picked up considerably the past few days.

Water in Bass Lake is low and fishing poor but we call attention to the fact that trout are present in this lake and they may be taken at any time, even night fishing is legal.

Water has almost reached the flood stage directly below Mendota dam and fishing has been poor.

Tulare county reports fishing fair in farm ponds of the Springville area for bass from nine to 10 inches. Anglers have been working Woodlake and the lower Kaweah river with fair success, especially in the lake.

In Kern county, anglers are still taking big trout along with some bluegill and crappie. Wardens report an estimated 200,000 ducks and 3,000 geese on Buena Vista lake.

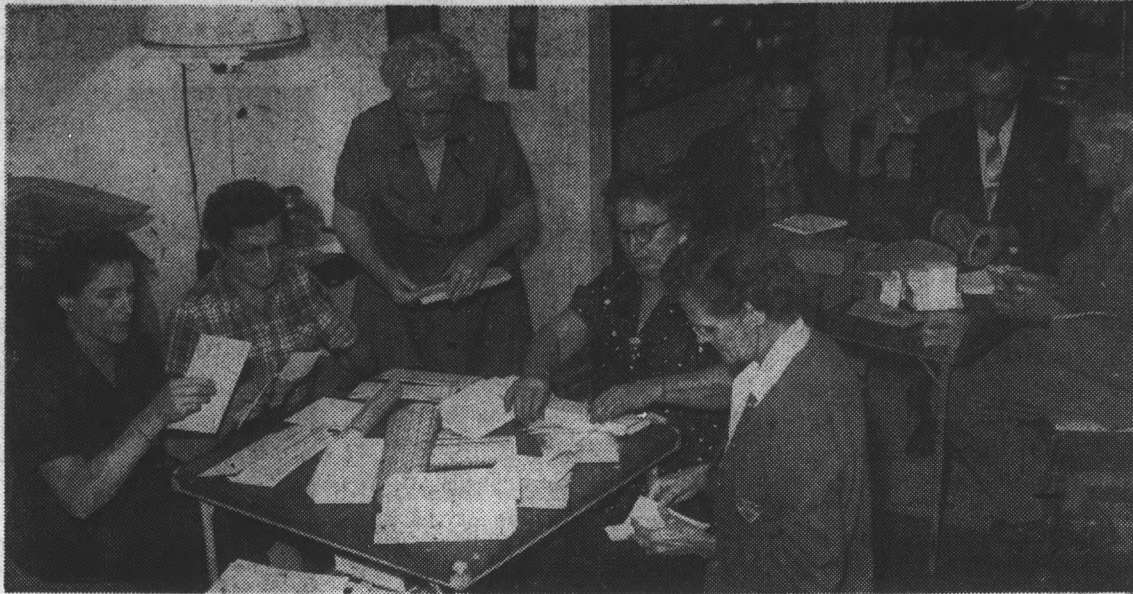

Howard Cantrell, Fresno, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service agent delivered 55 wild ducks to the Fresno Nutritional Home last Monday. The ducks were confiscated from game law violators and the youngsters at the home are deserving of a change in diet. We would like to suggest that if any anglers have a surplus of fish or game, especially ocean fish, this is a good place to make a gift that will be appreciated, needed and used.

Senator Hugh P. Donnelly, Tullock, has introduced a resolution in this session of the State Legislature to open the Delta-Mendota Canal to fishing but what will become of it remains to be seen. The bureau of reclamation is opposed to the idea as being dangerous among other reasons. This writer suggested to the bureau and California Wildlife Conservation Board that the possibility of construction something on the order of catwalks with safety rails be explored. A pilot project of half a mile or so using the horse race fund allocated to capital expenditures for fish and game work might be available. The bureau's central valley canal system could provide hundreds of miles of good fishing for thousands of anglers.

NO CURE FOR SCALY BARK

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 21 — Experiments at the Riverside station have shown that there is no known cure for scaly bark in citrus, however, proper treatment can retard advance of the disease.

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 21 — Although use of monuron to control weeds in citrus orchards has showed encouraging results, use of this chemical is still restricted. No damage to groves has been seen as a result of monuron use, however, individual trees have been damaged as a result of careless handling of the chemical, equipment breakdown, and spillage.

Magic Chocolate Frosting Makes Lucious Spread For Cake

You can add a touch of magic to a children's party if you climax the refreshments with an animal cake. Make the layered cake from a mix or by your favorite one or two egg recipe, and frost it with a magically smooth and luscious sweetened condensed milk chocolate frosting. Decorate it with animal candle holders from the dime store if it is a birthday party and a parade of animal crackers around the side.

The frosting spreads easily on your cake in rich, smooth swirls. When you are using this quick recipe be sure to distinguish between evaporated milk and sweetened condensed milk. Evaporated milk is fluid milk with some of the water removed. The recipe calls for sweetened condensed milk, a rich, creamy blend of fresh whole milk and sugar that can be converted, almost magically, into many delicious desserts.

Magic Animal Cake Frosting

1-1/3 cups (15-oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
1 tablespoon water
1/8 teaspoon salt
2 squares (2 oz.) unsweetened chocolate
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

Put sweetened condensed milk, water and salt in top of double boiler. Mix well. Add chocolate. Cook over rapidly boiling water, stirring often, until thick, about ten minutes. Remove from heat. Cool. Stir in vanilla. Spread on cooled cake. Gently press animal crackers in frosting around sides of cake.

MOVE UNDERWAY TO PROTECT DOVES

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 21 — A quiet, but very active move, is underway to take doves off the list of game birds and put them on the list of protected birds. Evidence points to the fact that doves are one of the state's most plentiful game birds, and are holding their own under present hunting pressure.

CHAIRMAN OF the Republican State Central Committee of California, Alphonzo E. Bell, of Los Angeles, left, who will speak at a county-wide Republican dinner meeting, set for Wednesday evening, February 27, at the new memorial building in Tulare. Planning to accompany him is Fred Johnson, right, executive secretary of the state Republican committee. Bell will discuss accomplishments of the Republican party, and plans for the future. A special feature of the evening will be entertainment by the Tulare High School Redskin band, directed by Gordon Lowe — the band that was judged the "best in the land" when it marched in the recent inaugural parade in Washington, D. C. A beef dinner will be served by women of the Farmersville Grange; time is 7:15 p.m.; tickets, selling at $3.00 per plate, are available in the Porterville area from Wiley Ambrose, Burke E. Burford, Bill Rodgers, Ivan Peterson and Ed. Olson. (Farm Tribune photo)

"EVEN THOUGH prices and wages have steadily gone up and up," explains Reddy Kilowatt, "a kilowatt hour of electricity costs less today than 20 years ago." (Bigger bill? That's because you're using more and living better electrically.) Small wonder electricity is your biggest bargain in modern living.

We Only Heard

By BILL RODGERS

AN INTERESTING slip of the typewriter is evident in a news release we received this week from the State Division of Forestry, relative to changes in county forestry personnel. After announcing that George Phibbs is the new ranger in charge in Tulare county, the release says, "Phibbs has been with the Division of Forestry since 1938."

"TWAS BACK in 1913 that the Federal government was authorized to levy an income tax on individuals, and, in that first year of the personal income tax, the government got $80,000,000 in revenue, representing a per capita tax of 82 cents. In 1956, income tax brought the federal government $55,000,000,000, representing a per capita tax of $328 . . . Per capita income is four and one-half times greater now than it was in 1913, but personal income tax is 400 times greater . . . If you were a single man in 1913, and made $5,000 a year, (pretty good in those days) you paid a $20 income tax; today you pay $944. Rates in the beginning days of the income tax ran from one to six per cent; today they range from 20 to 91 per cent. . . . Back in 1913, state and local governments received 70.5 per cent of all taxes paid, the federal government got only 29.5 per cent. Today, the federal government gets 72.3 per cent of taxes paid, leaving 27.7 per cent for state and local branches of government . . . And back in 1913, opponents of the income tax argued against its instigation because they said that someday the federal government might take as much as 10 per cent of a person's income . . . Ah, those good old days.

LAST WEEK we reported that Dr. Bill Baucom had been called upon to determine whether or not after which refreshments were served, provided by the John Taggards and Mrs. Daisy Hudson.

horses have eyebrows. (He says they do.) The question was asked by Margaret Mae Hamlett, of Los Angeles, who had a bet with her husband concerning the question. In answer to the answer that Bill sent, Mrs. Hamlett has this to say, "Thank you very much for your reply to my letter. However, I must tell you that I lost the bet. Now I have to wash our car three times. If I had won, my husband would have had to do the ironing for three weeks. Oh, well, I guess that's life." . . . To which we might add—Just another example of we men's superiority over the weaker sex. Hah!

Broccoli is now moving from the Imperial valley, Santa Maria, and Salinas.

WE SALUTE THE FFA

Special attention is this week being called to the Future Farmers of America and the program that this organization conducts among high school students throughout this state, and the nation.

Here in Porterville high school students have had the benefit of this practical agricultural training program for many years, and while the school does not as yet have a school farm, still the knowledge that has been gained through the FFA program has been of inestimable value to many young men going into the agricultural field — and into other fields as well.

For the Future Farmer program goes beyond strictly agricultural subjects into such things as public speaking, keeping of records, parliamentary procedure, writing, and training in, other general subjects that a young man needs even though he may not follow agriculture in later life.

Of course there is the thrill that Future Farmers get in exhibiting at fairs and livestock shows, in addition to the knowledge that they gain, and there is the comradeship that goes with membership in the Future Farmer organization.

And while some of us complain about theories of modern education, we can find in Future Farmer work a practical, down-to-earth program that is truly American in all of its aspects — a program that will benefit any young man — farmer to be, or business man to be.

So, we salute the Future Farmer organization and its program. We hope that it grows stronger in the years to come.

November, 1900

PORTERVILLE—Up to Thursday, the Earl Fruit company had shipped 22 cars of oranges from here and 28 cars of lemons from here and Exeter. A. Gregory has shipped 11 cars of Navel. This makes in all 33 cars of oranges for the season.

Very slow progress is being made on the bridge across South Tule.

Mike Griffin came down from South Tule, Monday, with a hole in his foot. He was standing with a .22 rifle in his hand, when it was accidentally discharged. Dr. Hardeman is attending him.

At the regular meeting of the Porterville Fire department, Wednesday, John Gerhardt, Ed. Zalud and Bert Sutherland were appointed by Vice President Laidlaw as a committee on arrangements for the annual masquerade ball to be given Christmas night.

The Porterville Board of Trade requests that all citizens who can place their rigs at the service of the committee for the transportation of persons attending the San Joaquin Valley Commercial association meeting in Porterville on November 17, please leave word with J. H. James or R. Bradley.

R. R. Fine and family, who recently went to Bakersfield, were robbed one day last week. On arriving at Bakersfield, they could not find any house to rent. They resided temporarily in a tent. During the absence of the family, someone entered the tent, broke open their trunks and stole a good many things.

The Democrats have one consolation in having saved something out of the wreck by meeting with local success. R. W. McFarland, the Democrat nominee for supervisor, was elected over Robert Baker.

There are times of the year when it's mighty hard to find things to do in the garden but this time of year it's hard to find something that doesn't need doing. Just the way the weeds are growing is enough to keep your back bent all spring.

Most of us got a late start with so much fog and cold but the past few days are making up for it. It's a good thing too because the aphids and snails would have starved to death if we hadn't rushed out and planted a few things.

Petunias, pansies, snaps, stocks, calendulas, African daisies, and quite a number of things are in shape for insect pasture now. After you've shared with them, we have tomato plants, onions, seed spuds, and a wide assortment of vegetable seeds for your own use.

Fruit trees and roses will have to be planted soon, or not at all, and those planted previous years should be sprayed. Shade trees are still bare root but if you put it off much longer you'll have to buy the can and five gallons of dirt we plant them in.

If your weeds still have that yellow "runty" look they had last fall it's time to fertilize. Steer manure, Vigoro, Gro-rite, or cottonseed meal will give you weeds you can be proud of. Good for flowers too. We're open Sundays and February 22.

DUCOR WOMEN'S CLUB MEMBERS OFFER FACTS CONCERNING PLAN TO BUILD NEW CLUBHOUSE AND COMMUNITY LIBRARY

The Ducor Woman's Club owns the building in which the Library is housed... it is evident to all who know, that this building needs replacement. In such poor condition is this building, in fact that the County will not even pay for further repairs, or paint on it (since 1945 it has been painted twice on the outside, once on the inside and some repair work has been done on the steps.

In 1952, subsequent to necessary building inspections following the earthquake, certain structural weaknesses were discovered, as well as a serious crack in the masonry caused by the ground settling under one corner of the building, known as the Bank Hall, which also was owned by the Ducor Woman's Club and maintained as a community center as well as a Club House for the organization.

After many, many meetings, much discussion, and with real regret, we voted to dispose of that property and effected a trade, securing lots 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 of block 5, which is located immediately west of the Ducor Baptist Church.

On this property we now propose to erect a modern structure, in which will be facilities (more adequate in every respect) for the Library, as well as a club room, kitchen, storage and rest rooms—which will again (we hope) be used as a Community center for all those meetings where not so much space is needed as in the Ducor School Cafetorium.

On the basis of preliminary plans and estimates made by Max Young of Porterville, a building, such as we require, could be built for slightly over $10.00 per square foot or a total of $20,000.00, exclusive of septic tank, leach lines and blacktopping of the required off-street parking area.

That this truly will be a Community Center, adequate to the needs of all our community groups, we are asking that each organization appoint two members, to comprise a committee, whose primary function will be to evolve a plan for the financing of the building of the structure.

Our lots have been properly re-zoned for the erection of a public building (they are free of any indebtedness, taxes are paid and water rights are in our name)—we have more than $3,500.00 with which to start the building fund.

Meeting with the fair board were M. E. Beachler, of Bakersfield, president of the Arabian Horse Association of the San Joaquin Valley, and Donald Jones, Porterville Arabian breeder.

Other business of the meeting included the acceptance of a recommendation by the fair's livestock committee that starting in 1953, no classes will be set up for sheep, hogs and beef cattle breeding classes. It is stated that young breeding animals can be shown in fat, feeder or stocker classes.

Organization of the Poplar Grange was completed at a meeting held January 24, 1912, when Charles E. Collins, of Dinuba, explained the Grange program. The Grange was chartered February 1, 1912, when E. T. Pettit was master of the California State Grange; Nellie W. Hunt also signed the charter as secretary of the State Grange.

In January of 1915, when G. O. Taggard was master of the Poplar Grange, the Grange hall was dedicated by Joseph Holmes, state master.

First Grange meetings were held over the store at the southeast corner of Poplar, the only hall in the community at that time. The Grange shared the hall with the Royal Neighbors and Woodmen of the World.

In the fall of 1914, the Union church building, located two miles east of Poplar, was offered to the Poplar Grange for use as a hall.

Mrs. Della Howell offered a plot of ground at Poplar for the hall and F. T. Martin donated the use of a team to move the church building. Poplar Grange met in this hall for the first time on January 12, 1915. In the spring of 1952, work was started on remodeling the Grange hall, and on September 23, 1952, the first meeting was held in the "new" Grange hall.

Through the years, the Grange has been active in many Poplar community affairs. In 1914, the question of an eight-hour day was being discussed nationally, and the Poplar Grange went on record opposing it.

In 1916, the Grange petitioned the county board of supervisors for improved county roads, and favored a plan to provide a farm advisor in Tulare county.

In 1917, the Grange interested itself in "control of food prices", bought War bonds, and discussed a community fair, an event that was successfully staged the following year.

In 1921, interest was evident in the "Marshall plan", forerunner of the Central Valley project, and in this year, the Grange won first prize with its float in the Porterville Armistice day parade.

In 1923, the Grange concerned itself with the new weed pest that had just appeared in the county — puncture vine, and in 1924-25, an ante room was added to the hall.

In the late 1920s, an electric corn popper was brought to a Grange meeting, and was the object of considerable interest.

In the early 1930s, there were discussions at Grange meetings about public welfare, strikes, and Communism; in 1933-36, a Home Economics club was started; in 1938 efforts of the Grange resulted in the placing of a public dump the community lost a man who knew this town during its rough and hectic early days — the days in which Porter Putnam was successfully encouraging the Plano population to move to Porterville, the days when saloons were the most flourishing businesses in town and women sometimes walked down the board sidewalks at their own risk.

Mr. Loyd was associated with Scotty's chop house the night that Jim McKinney shot up the town, although he was home at the time of the incident, and as he said in later years, he had no desire to go back down town after he heard of the shooting. (Sensible people stayed behind closed doors when McKinney was on the loose.)

During the years, Mr. Loyd was in the restaurant business, the grocery business and the hardware business. He was born in Plano in 1876, his parents being Mr. and Mrs. John W. Loyd, who came to this area in 1862.

Girl Scouts and Brownies will hold their family night dinners next week at the high school cafeteria, the Scouts on Monday, the Brownies on Wednesday. ground south of Poplar.

Question of establishing a farm labor camp near Poplar for migrants was a center of interest in 1939, with the Grange first opposing, then accepting the camp.

In the years of the second World War, the Grange was active in bond drives and also assisted with a USO program in Porterville. It was in these years that a real effort was started to raise funds for a new hall.

Several speakers appeared at Grange meetings in 1947 to explain various aspects of the Central Valley project, that was then becoming a reality.

Late in 1951, a building committee was named, and tentative plans made to move and remodel the present Grange hall.

Many other items are recorded in a history of the Poplar Grange that was completed in 1951 by Lottie Taggard and that has been kept up to date down to the present.

Ratigan; George Carter, assistant county probation officer, will speak.

Karl E. Longley has been named principal appointee to West Point; he is the son of Supervisor and Mrs. Ray Longley.

Mrs. Mary Etta Marsh, a resident of Porterville since 1914, died Sunday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Calla Bastian.

Funeral services were held this week for Frederick Earl Danner, a native of White River.

Junior chamber of commerce members are completing plans for their annual banquet, the evening of March 14 at the high school cafeteria. Speaker will be the Rev. Ragnar Kjeldahl.

Thomas Poole, a patient at the Porterville State hospital, drowned Tuesday in the swimming pool on the Jack Emery ranch, after leaving the hospital grounds without authorization.

Shipment of carrots from Imperial and Coachella valleys is increasing.
